

Language Arts Lesson Plan

For Demonstration of the Instructional Model: Engaging, Teaching, and Assessing with Technology and Online Resources Integration

Dr. Han Liu: Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania

Lesson Topic	Elements of a Story
Unit	Writing
Subject Area	Language Arts
Grade Level	2-5
Time	Three classes

PA Standards

1.3.3. B. Identify literary elements in stories describing characters, setting and plot.

Compare the use of literary elements within and among texts including characters, setting, plot, theme and point of view.

Learning Objectives

After this lesson students will learn the secrets for writing a good story, explore narratives -- heroes, plot and background. Then, students will be able to write a story of their own including all the elements covered in this lesson.

This online interactive is comprehensive enough to include Engaging, Teaching, and Assessing sections all in one.

Elements of a Story

<http://www.learner.org/interactives/story/index.html>